To negotiate technical collaborations for Mysore Implements Factory, Hassan and Central Industrial Workshop, Bangalore and to finalise arrangements for the Tool Room Project at Bangalore.	A technical collaboration Agreement has been drawn up between Central Industrial Workshop and a West German Firm to manufacture heavy duty trailers in the Central Industrial Workshop, Bangalore, to which the Government of India have since granted a letter of intent. The final terms of collaboration are before the Government of India for approval. A technical collaboration agreement with a Hungerian Firm for manufacture of sophisticated agricultural implements in the Mysore Implements Factory could not be finalised as the terms were not favourable.
